

15 20

M. The Bre - wer proves by his good

A. hang so_ high, they will not come down.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

25

M. ale that one thing soon is new and stale.

A. The

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

30

M.

A. tay - lor night and day takes pains New fa - shions to in - vent for

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

35

M.

A.
gains.

T.

B.
The draw - er with his works of price, Can mo - ney_

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

55

M.

A. green-leeves is my heart of gold and who but la - dy green- sleeves. Green-sleeves and gal-lant ruffs, brod-red cauls and

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

60

M. Hey how, look where she huffs, let los-sel bear a-way the buffs,

A. gold-en cuffs, The po - et

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

65

M.

A. and the paint - er's_ sleight, With strange de - vi - ses bring de - light,

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

70

B

75

M.

A. devises bring delight.

T.

B.

The

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

80

M.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

85

M.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

90

M.
I name no thing nor I mean no thing, but as pret - ty a thing as_ may be.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

95

M.

A.
Lit tle Peg of Ram - sey with the yel-low hair, and could'st thou greet if I were dead, mar-ry would I seare, and

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

100

M. There - fore the dit - tie

A. could's't thou greet if I wēre dead mar-ry would I seare mar-ry would I seare

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

105

M. of my song is love me lit - tle and love me long. The

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

110

M. fair - est flower in gar - den green is in my love's

A.

T. Can ye dance the sha-king of the sheets, a dance that ev-ry man must do?

B. Can ye dance the sha-king of the sheets, a

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

115

M. breast ful come - ly seen.

A.

T. Can ye trick it up with dain - tu sweets,

B. dance that ev-ry man must do, that ev-ry man must do? Can ye trick it up with dain - ty sweets, and

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

120

M.

A.

T.

and ev' - ry thing that longs there- to? Make rea - dy then your wind - ing- sheet, and see how you can

B.

ev' - ry thing that longs there- to?

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

125

M.

A.

Bring a - way the beg- gar and the king and ev' - ry man in his debe - stir your feet, For death is the man that all must meet.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

130

M. And ev' ry one come fol-low me, come

A. gree. And ev' ry one come fol-low me, and ev' - ry one come

T. And ev' ry one come fol-low me, come fol-low me, and

B. And ev' - ry one come fol-low me, and ev' - ry one come fol-low me, come

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

135 C 140

M. fol - low me.

A. fol-low me, come fol-low me.

T. ev' - ry man come fol-low me.

B. fol - low me. A won - der

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

M.

A.

T. mare they call her Brock but and th'wilt have me love,tell me now Thou'st have the skin to make thee a frock Clout lea-ther was

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

155

M.

A.

T.
ne-ver so dear,I can-not come ev' ry day to woo.

B.
The cos'n - ing mate would

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

160 165

M.

A.

T.

B.

soon be_ found, if he_____ in shifts did not a - bound

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

170

M.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

175

M.

A.
There were three rav'ns sat on a tree, hey—

T. one thing is but ill.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

180

M.

A.
— no-ny no-ny no ny They were as black as black might be, hey no-ny no-ny no; they were as black as

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

185

M.

A.

black might be, hey no-ny no - ny no, hey no-ny hey no-ny no-ny no-ny

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

Chill

190

M.

tar-ry no more at home, at home, chill vopon a coun - try mome with a dud-gin haft by my zy - da with a

A.

T.

Chill tar-ry no more at home, at home, chill vopon a coun-try mome with a

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

195

M. dud - gin haft by my zy-da. The

A.

T.
 dud-gin haft by my zyde chill go a-broad and zee and zee what va-shions now there be in all the world so wide

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

200

M.
 clown that knows no fa - shions fine may stand a__ broad, good

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

205

M. night John a Lyne.

A.

T.

B.
When all is gone and no - thing

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

210

M.
with dud - gin

A.
with dud - gin

T.
with dud - gin

B.
left, then fare - well dag - ger with dud - gin haft, with dud - gin

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

D 215

M. haft.

A. haft. What plea-sure have we

T. haft.

B. haft.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

220

M.

A. in this life so fraught with mi - se - ry, un - less it sea - son'd be with sweet va -

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

225 230

M.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

235

M.

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

240

M. care and heart with me - lo - dy.

A.

T. And why may not maids mer-ry be, and laugh a-

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

245

M.

A.

T. ehile in good com - pa - ny Te-he-he-he-he and have good sport and plea-sant glee.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

250

M.
A - las poor sil - ly man that e - ver thou wert born, thy wife shall

A.

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

255

M.
be thy mas - ter and thou shalt wear the horn.

A.
Well fare the night-in gale, fare fall the thrush-cock too, But foul

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

260

M.

A.
fare the fil - thy bird that sing - eth cuck - oo, but foul_ fare the fil - thy bird that sing - eth cuck -

T.

B.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

265

M.

A.
oo.

T.

B.
And sith you have that

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

270

M.

A.

T.

B. hap - py_ fate, The cor - nr'd_ cap must co-ver your

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

275

M.
Now when de - vi - ses are gone round, They

A.

T.

B.
pate.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

280

M.
come a - gain to their first ground, to their first ground.

A.
Ro - bin Hood,

T.
-

B.
-

Tr.
-

A.
-

T.
-

B1
-

B2
-

285

M.
-

A.
Ro - bin Hood and Lit-tle John, They lean'd them in___ a tree, a tree, Fri - ar Tuck and Maid Ma-ri-

T.
-

B.
-

Tr.
-

A.
-

T.
-

B1
-

B2
-

290 FULL

M. Since all the world on wheels do

A. an so turn ye a - bout all three. Since all the world on wheels do

T. Since all the world on wheels do

B. Since all the world on wheels do

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2

♩ = 76    ♪ = 60 295

M. run, the wheel-wright shall ne - ver have done, shall ne - ver have done.

A. run, on wheels do run, the wheel-wright shall ne - ver have done, have done.

T. run, all the world, the wheel-wright shall ne ver more, shall ne - ver have done.

B. run, the wheel- wright ne - ver shall have done, shall ne - ver have done.

Tr.

A.

T.

B1

B2